To Whom It May Concern at American Foundation,

It is amazingly refreshing to see your employees at American Foundation share the same principals and ethics. So much so it has restored my faith in the work force of those potential residents of Wisconsin.

Your employees and your staff have restored that faith in me. NEVER, since I have been here, have I seen or witnessed a group of people WORK, like I have seen your staff do. It is like they ALL knew that one big job is a 120 little jobs, quote. I did NOT see a lazy moment, a lazy employee or a lazy person since they showed up at this job.

They excavated & straightened out the long back wall in 3 long days. It was like watching a movie. Everything was being done to my satisfaction & NO additional Charges. NO breaks, NO negativity and NO unwillingness to partake in the big picture of completing the job. I am just a stranger to you and may for my eternity remain just that, but I am a person nonetheless, who is 100% impressed by your staff. I just HAPPEN to be an employer that would die for guys like that.

They say "the best advertising in the world is word of mouth" your staff that showed up here today, just verified those words. There is NOT a single person I wouldn't tell about your service with any hesitation at all.

Your guys really have everything to do with gaining future business. To those that actually worked, physically on this job, THANK YOU not just for doing your jobs but for restoring my faith that some people still believe in a hard day's work.

Every little thing you thought wasn't noticed, was! I am truly glad that it was American Foundation who did this job and not another company.

I am blown away that these guys needed no babysitting, No supervision and mostly No positive reinforcement. They truly were professional and concise and, personally speaking, worked their asses off. They did everything to my satisfaction.

I noticed on your business cards you have "family owned" on them. I will leave you with an Italian quote from Al Capone..."Just because you share the same blood that DOESN'T make you a family"! Those people, who showed up on this job site, truly are family that you should be proud of.

Thank you again!

Sincerely & Respectfully,

An American Foundation Customer for Life
